Philadelphia, Pa., September 25.—Detroit won the second game of the series here to-day 6 to 3. The visitors scored all their runs in two innings by mixing four of their five singles with four passes, a double steal by Gainor and Stanage, and two sacrifice flies. Mullin, who was given perfect support, kept the home players' hits scattered to one per inning, and Philadelphia's total was kept down, despite the fact that the seven safeties included a home fun, two doubles and a pair of triples. The batting of Crawford and Collins featured the hitting. McInnis left the game after being hit on the wrist by a pitched bail, but he was not seriously hurt. Score:

Mack at First Opposed.

When Connie Mack first heard of the proposed game here, he was wrathful. He could not for the life of 1/m see why Richmond was entitled to a game of such prominence, even though Jimmie McAleer had agreed. Dr. Bagby hied to Philadelphia and held a little session with the great man, and after looking at the doctor for a few minutes. He was unable to hold out longer. "Doe, I'm going to play Richmond if I bust," was his forcible but rather incloquent way of expressing it. "You folks have shown the proper spirit." So Richmond, with Dr. Bagby's aid, won out over all competitors, a way Richmond has of doling in most instances.
